WHAT IS CAMP LITTLE RED DOOR?

Little Red Door Cancer Agency holds four camps for children who have been affected by cancer. Any child who is in cancer treatment or beyond or have a parent or guardian who has cancer are eligible to attend Little Red Door's camps. Camp Little Red Door is a chance for children to have the same camp experience as any other child and to interact with other children facing similar experiences.

CAMP LITTLE RED DOOR AT BRADFORD WOODS

Camp Little Red Door at Bradford Woods is a week-long residential camp held each year in June at Bradford Woods in Martinsville, Indiana. Camp activities include swimming, canoeing, archery, horseback riding, zip lining, nature education, rock climbing, arts and crafts, campfires and more!

Robert T. Grand Leadership Academy:

Campers ages 15 to 18 who are attending Summer Camp are eligible to apply to leadership training, which takes place two days before camp. Campers will learn life-long lessons they will put to use right away as junior counselors at Camp LRD. Leadership Academy is open to both children in cancer treatment or beyond and their siblings or one friend.

FAMILY CAMP

Held over a weekend at Bradford Woods, Family Camp is an opportunity for the entire family to experience camp! Occurring once in the spring and once in the fall, Family Camp Little Red Door is offered to any family in Indiana with a child in or beyond cancer treatment or with a parent in or beyond cancer treatment. Parents and all siblings are welcome to come spend time in the woods swimming, hiking, fishing, and cooking out among other families who understand the journey.

CAMP LRD IN THE CITY

Started in 2018, Camp Little Red Door in the City offers a week-long day camp experience to any child in or beyond cancer treatment and all of their siblings or a friend. Each day of camp participants will venture into the community to enjoy specialized activities with Indianapolis community partners.
